

Army Pvt. Verona Salazar is presently undergoing basic military training at Fort Ord, Calif.

The eight week program consists of such vital military subjects as rifle marksmanship, infantry tactics, first aid, military justice, and the conservation and maximum utilization of military supplies. Upon completion of his basic training, the soldier will go on to either advanced Infantry training or to some of the many Army specialist schools.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Manuel Salazar, 3949 W. 188th St., is a 1960 graduate of North High school. He worked as a salesman in Zody's department store prior to entering the service.

Embassy Cuts Threaten U. S. Trade, Engle Says

Senator Clair Engle (D-Calif.) said today that development of foreign markets for American products is threatened by a proposed cut in State Department overseas personnel.

He said the State Department itself is largely responsible for the threatened cut because it has failed to place a high priority on the need for staff to handle commercial work at U. S. embassies and consular posts.

Senator Engle explained that the House Appropriations Committee has trimmed $853,217 from the current State Department appropriation for 1962, eliminating all but 10 of the 94 personnel needed for commercial work overseas.

AT THE same time the California Senator revealed that he has formally requested the Senate Appropriations Committee to restore these funds.

In a letter to Senator John McClellan, Committee chairman, he said: "It is my firm conviction that our commercial work abroad must be strengthened. The restoration of funds in the amount of $853,217 . . . is essential to our export expansion program."

Senator Engle also explained that he believes that the Commercial Attaches should be transferred from the State Department to the Commerce Department as a part of a newly-created Foreign Commerce Corps.

HE IS THE author of S. 1729, a bill to initiate such action. "It is vital that we sell more American goods in other countries to meet our balance of payments and to create jobs for American labor," he said.

Senator Engle said he favors strengthening of the State Department's commercial staff now so that the Department of Commerce could take over "the best-staffed operation possible" when S. 1729 passes the Congress.

"If the bill should not be enacted at an early date, it remains of utmost importance that we develop a more vigorous program of overseas commercial work," he said.

Local Kiwanis At Convention

Tommy G. Wilkes, president of the Torrance Kiwanis Club, his wife, Lorraine, and Dr. Kurt Sherry, chairman of the club's boys' and girls' committee, have been attending the 48th annual convention of Kiwanis International in Toronto, Canada, which is scheduled to end its sessions today.

The local representatives joined nearly 17,000 other Kiwanians, their wives and families in what was being billed as the largest Kiwanis convention in history. It was the first such convention in Canada since World War II.
